Re: Work Session on Consultation for
Police Services

In discussing the role of the Rockville Police Department, the Mayor and Council agreed that the Rockville police should remain a supplemental force to the County police, as opposed to a full service department.

It was felt that a consultant's review would provide the basis for specifically defining the role the Rockville Police Department would play in the next decade.

Meeting No. 11-86

-2-

March 15, 1986

The Mayor and Council agreed that a consultant would be utilized to conduct a comprehensive review of the Rockville police in order to identify opportunities to adequately meet the police services needs of the city of Rockville, and to improve upon the effectiveness and efficiency of the delivery of police services in the city.

Specific areas mentioned for the consultant's review included looking at the cooperation between the City and County police service providers and at possible opportunities to integrate the two services, and examining the potential for use of para-professionals or auxiliary police to perform non-police functions.

Re: Adjournment

There being no further business to come before the Mayor and Council in work session, the meeting was adjourned at 1:00 p.m. to convene again in general session on Monday, March 24, 1986, at 8:00 p.m. or at the call of the Mayor.
